Please Note:

Thank you to the New Moon Folk Club for a wonderful evening out! SWESA members were given the only reserved tables ever, to date, before enjoying a delicious Ukrainian meal. For those of you who asked for perogies or cabbage rolls, call Joe at 780-434-4288.

The meal was the perfect start to a fantastic evening. Concert organizers kicked off the stage with an audience-carried tribute of “Hallelujah” for Leonard Cohen. Lucas Chaisson, one of only seven Albertans to ever receive a Canadian Folk Music Award, did not disappoint and Tom Russell’s seasoned witty banter and encore performance of Navajo Rug had the audience standing in thanks. I am so happy that I could attend this event with our members. Thank you.

Millwoods Christian School presents "Schoolhouse". It is a Canadian play. The setting is a 1938 one-room school house. At the heart is a new young teacher, Miss Linton, who has come to teach at Jericho school. Her students are funny, smart, eager, and mischievous; she handles them with grace. But then a new student comes to her school, and he challenges everyone in how they think and ultimately how we should treat each other. You can read more about the play at <http://talonbooks.com/books/schoolhouse>
