Women at Work in Nineteenth-Century Canada With Carolee Pollock

Sometimes we assume that women in the "olden days" stayed at home while the men went off to work. But, in fact, many Canadian women went out to work as well. What did they do? Why did they do it? How did they feel about their work? Carolee will tell you about some of the ways women made their lives work through paid work.

When: Monday, March 5 from 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Location: Yellowbird East Community Centre

Cost: $2

Advocating for Women's Equality Through the Charter

LEAF is a national charitable, non-profit organization, founded in 1985. LEAF works to advance the substantive equality rights of women and girls in Canada through litigation, law reform and public education. We welcome Jo-Ann Kolmes and Jennifer Tomaszewski as they share the short film "Constitute!" which tells the story of the group of women who mobilized to seek stronger equality provisions.

When: Friday, March 9 from 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm

Location: Yellowbird East Community Centre

Cost: $2
